The Atlantic Cable.

The following are extracts of a letter received at St. John, N. B., from Captain Anderson, late of the Cunard line, who has taken command of the Great Eastern for the purpose of laying the Atlantic cable :

"I found, the first day I arrived here, that we were anchored in too little water for loading. No one would take the responsibility of saying where I ought to shift to, as the advices were conflicting, so that I had to sound the whole harbor for myself, and, after all, decide upon mooring her head and stern against the prognostications of owners and dockyard masters. I have nine anchors, weighing fifty-four tons, and one thousand and eighty fathoms of chain, and she requires it all, and spoils my sleep more than I like.—However, we are getting on bravely, and I feel as sanguine of success as a man ought to do whose duty it is to apprehend every possible contingency that may occur upon an ocean whose freaks I have ample reason to remember. I neither feel nervous, afraid, nor diffident; but yet I hear so many good things said of me, that I hardly know what I have done or can do to justify them. Success will go a long way, I know, and failure will do the other thing, but I am in for it now, and I am sure the anxiety outside will not exceed the worry of organization of men and material where we are.

"I think we shall certainly sail from here about the 5th or 6th of July, and very soon after from Valentia, but we shall dodge a little, it need be, for a good starting chance, as I would as soon sail on the 25th of July, as any other time.

"My confidence is great in the engineers of the cable—clear-headed, earnest, good men. Every one connected with their department means success, and paramount any arise from what human foresight cannot determine.—Yet it leaves enough to apprehend and keep us from being boastful; one has seen so many things go wrong because of some vile little thing that nobody could be blamed for, and then we are dealing with a mere thread—so that after all there will be a great deal to thank God for should it succeed."

The following is from the London Telegraph :

"It seems impossible that there can be any fault in the Atlantic cable when the Great Eastern goes to sea. To say nothing of the tests applied to it at the manufactory, it is tested not alone after it has been taken on board, but during its delivery into the ship. As soon as a length is brought alongside, one end is connected with the coils already on board, and the other end with the instruments in the testing-room. The circuit is thus made through the whole extent of the coil, the portion on board and the portion alongside. The process of hauling then commences, and the insulation is continuously observed. The instruments in the testing-room record the smallest deviation from absolutely perfect insulation. It will be understood that an insulation which shall be quite perfect, as an electrician understands the word, is not attainable. A piece of metal separated by means of the purest glass, and inclosed in the driest atmosphere that can be obtained, will, if charged with electricity, lose that electricity after a time. In speaking of insulation we must, therefore, be understood to mean an approximate condition, but the approximation in the case of the new Atlantic cable comes so near to perfection that this rough, tarry rope is a scientific wonder.

"The last dying pulsation of the old Atlantic cable was forced through it by means of a galvanic battery consisting of two hundred and forty cells. The submarine telegraph from London to Amsterdam is habitually worked with a battery of fifty cells, and such a battery is commonly used for the other submarine lines of Europe. Signals have been repeatedly sent through more than thirteen hundred miles of the cable now on board the Great Eastern by means of one coil Galvanic currents, so feeble that they could not have been felt by the hand, and might have been passed harmlessly through a circuit completed by the operator's tongue, can be used to convey messages along a length of cable that, would, very nearly stretch from London to St. Petersburg. Over needless [illegible] telegraphy, a current [illegible] length on his back, [illegible] mitted, surpassed [illegible] feat ever [illegible]

To detect electricity it is necessary to use Professor Thompson's mirror galvanometer. This beautiful instrument consists of a mirror, about the size of a fourpenny piece, made of microscope glass, and so thin that it weighs only a grain. On the back of this mirror a minute magnet is fixed, and thus supplemented it is suspended by a silken fibre in the heart of a coil of wire, so that any current passing through the coil deflects the magnet and the mirror along with it. A ray of light reflected by the mirror falls on a scale, distant about 18 or 20 inches, and reveals its faintest movements. Different combinations of these movements represent the different letters of the alphabet, and thus the apparent erratic wanderings of a ray of light are made to convey intelligence. An instrument of this kind is constantly used to test the cable, as it is hauled on board; and if any fault had existed it could not have passed without detection.

The Poverty of Statesmen.

Statesmen, who are worthy the appellation given them, generally fail to secure fortunes. They devote themselves to pursuits, which, if honorably adhered to, rarely yield rich rewards:

Jefferson died comparatively poor. Indeed, if Congress had not purchased his library, and given for it five times its value, he would with difficulty have kept the wolf from his door.

Madison saved money, and was comparatively rich To add to his fortune, however, or rather to that of his widow, Congress purchased his manuscript papers; and paid thirty thousand dollars for them.

James Monroe, the sixth President of the United States, died in New York, so poor that his remains [illegible] a cemetery in School street, but no monument marks the spot where they repose.

John Quincy Adams left some hundred and fifty thousand dollars, the result of industry, prudence, inheritance. He was a man of method and economy.

Martin Van Buren died very rich.—Throughout his political life he studiously looked out for his own interest. It is not believed that he ever spent thirty shillings in politics. His party shook the bush, and he caught the bird.

Daniel Webster squandered some millions in his life time, the product of his professional and political speculations. He died, leaving his property to his children, and his debts to his friends. The former sold for less than twenty thousand dollars—the latter exceeded two hundred and fifty thousand.

Henry Clay left a very handsome estate. It probably exceeded one hundred thousand dollars. He was a prudent manager and a scrupulously honest man.

James K. Polk left about one hundred and fifty thousand—fifty thousand of which he saved from his Presidency of four years.

John Tyler left fifty thousand dollars. Before he reached the Presidency he was a bankrupt. In office, he husbanded his means and then married a rich wife.

Milliard Fillmore is a wealthy man and keeps his money in a very strong and safe box. It will never be wasted in speculation, nor squandered in vice.

CROSSING NIAGARA FALLS ON A TIGHT ROPE.—A Rochester paper says: "Harry Leslie crossed the rapids at Niagara Falls on the Fourth at Blondin's old crossing. On this occasion Leslie had a fair opportunity of exhibiting his agility and daring feats to an audience variously estimated at from fifteen to twenty thousand people.

"The first crossing was made in five minutes and nineteen seconds. The second, after receiving the congratulations of his Canadian friends, and partaking of some refreshments, was made on the full run, in four minutes. After a short respite, Leslie again made his appearance in woman's garb, night-cap, petticoats, &c., and for about fifteen minutes astonished the audience by enacting, on the main rope, a drunken scene, staggering, reeling, &c., with a perfect recklessness of life or limb. He wound up his foot-hardy exploits by running out on one of the guy-ropes without [illegible] and throwing [illegible]

He would [illegible] but would elevate all; [illegible] nor level down [illegible] the American people could be elevated. If all will be elevated, we may become the greatest and most exalted nation on the earth.

My little daughters and sons, said the speaker, give me your attention while I say, honestly and truly, that if I could inform you of something, and put that into immediate effect, which would tend to the elevation of you all, I would be proudor of it than to be President forty times. [Applause.] Here is the executive mansion and yonder is the capitol of a great Nation, and you look to those who make and execute the laws as persons sublime and grand. But just think for a moment. You are the crop behind us. All those buildings, and all of this government, will one day pass under your control and become your property, and you will have to put in force and control the principles of government, of religion and humanity. And let all boys consider, every mother's son of them, that each one is born a candidate for the presidency. Why not then commence to educate yourselves for the presidency? And he would say to the little girls, that while they could not be presidents, they are born candidates for the wives of presidents. While each little boy may feel that he is a candidate for the presidency, each little girl may feel that she is a candidate for a president's wife, and each should commence at once to qualify himself and herself morally, intellectually and socially for such high positions.

With regard to religion, he said the time had come when the first inquiry should be whether one is a good man or a good woman. If they are good it matters little to what sect or church they belong. There can be no greatness without goodness; and all should remember with Pope, that

"Honor and fame from no condition rise;
Act well your part—there all the honor lies."

When we look at these boys and girls, at the banners which they carry, at the flag, with stripes and stars upon them, which they bear aloft—when we look upon the brave men and the gallant officers around us, and remember what they have been contending for, we feel that we can best preserve this government if we rear up our people properly, and make this, as we can, the most intelligent portion of God's habitable globe. The stars and stripes is not an unmeaning symbol when we look back through the din of battle, and see what it has cost to perpetuate this government; and should we not then use every effort to [illegible] up properly these child[illegible] cause [illegible] sustain

Then, my little sons and little daughters, said the President, talking as a father to his children, let me say to you, educate yourselves; be industrious and persevering; store your minds with all that is good; put all things worthy of preservation in your brain, and your intellects will expand and grow. And in conclusion, I say again, may your little song of victory be heard in heaven. God bless you.

The Wife's Commandments.

Thou shalt have no other woman but me.

Thou shalt not have a picture or likeness of any other woman but me; for, I only am thy wife; and a jealous wife!

Remember thy wife's commandments to keep them sacred.

Love and Cherish thy wife, and no other woman, that she may live lovingly together in the home thou gavest unto her.

Thou shalt not find fault when thy wife goes out to spend money, buying fashionable shawls, and dresses; for, I am thy wife. Thou shalt not scold. Thou shalt not suffer thy wife to wear a thread-bare dress, but shall keep her decently clad and in good repair. Thou also shalt furnish buttons and thread to keep thine and thy children's shirts in order. Fail not.

Thou shalt not gad about, from saloon to saloon, after sun-set, neglecting thy wife and children.

Thou shalt not dress thyself in fashion, unless thou dress thy wife also.

Thou shalt not go to spiritual or [illegible]

Thou shalt not find fault if thy wife should fail in getting the meals in due time; for, knowest thou, O man!.. better late than never.

Thou shalt not drink beer nor spirits, nor chew, nor smoke, for, knowest thou it consumeth money.—Verily, verily I say unto thee: I am Mistress of the house thou savest unto me.

GEN. CASS ON PRESIDENT LINCOLN.—The venerable Lewis Cass has written his views of Mr. Lincoln, in which he says:

"The departed patriot entered upon his new field of duty with unwavering confidence in the justice of the cause and its final triumphal issue; and this confidence accompanied him during all the trials to which he was exposed, and invigorated the policy he felt called to adopt; and, as in the progress of events, he became better understood by the course of his administration, he became better appreciated by his countrymen. Though differences of opinion as to the measure to be adopted were inseperable from such a contest, involving many issues of weal and woe, still his noble qualities inspired general confidence and commanded general respect, and his successful administration will be evidence in all time to come of his worth and the wisdom of his measures.

SOUTH CAROLINA COTTON AND RICE.—The Charleston Courier of the 24th says: "Purchasers of cotton and rice appear to be reaping a rich harvest, and the holders of this kind of property are doing well by disposing of it. Now that the twenty-five per cent. tax is taken off cotton we begin to see that article come forward to market in large quantities. Men of capital are coming from the North by every steamer with the view of investing in cotton and rice.

OLD AGE.—Old age is a public good. Do not feel sad because you are old.—Whenever you are walking, no one ever opens a gate for you to pass through, no one ever honors you with any kind of help, without being himself the better for what he does; for fellow feeling with the aged ripens the soul.

CALIFORNIA EARTHQUAKES.—A California philosopher has discovered that the shocks we [illegible] quakes are not [illegible] caused [illegible] ed [illegible]

Gov. Johnson of Georgia.

On the 1st inst., the Hon. James Johnson, Provisional Governor of Georgia, adressed the citizens at Savannah on their duties. It was mainly directed to proving the propriety of the oath they were required to take and to explaining his views on the policy of emancipation. In the course of his remarks he said:

"The President is authorized by the Constitution to command the military forces of the United States to suppress insurrections and to repel invasion. The writ of habeas corpus may be suspended in case of rebellion, and Congress has power to make captures by sea and by land. War has existed between the United States and the South within the meaning and purview of the Constitution; it was a rebellion—too large for an insurrection. The President, by virtue of his office as a commander-in-chief of the armies, had a right to make captures, to seize horses, to take property; he had a right to capture our soldiers, to make prisoners and to release them on parole or not. We could under our right as belligerents do the same thing; it was a right of war. It follows as a legal sequence that the President had power to capture a negro, to hold him in custody, to detain him, whether considered as property or a person. He acquired an authority over persons and property which he could not exercise in time of peace.—It was a latent power, a war power; and by virtue of this power to command the armies of the United States, he issued that proclamation as a rule of war, for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion. The slaves, upon the surrender of our armies, were cap[illegible] to-night, by virtue of that proclama[illegible] tion, they stand emancipated. I state this to be my opinion as a lawyer, and as a lawyer I state that, in my opinion, such will be the decision of the Supreme Court. I could wish, myself, that such had not been the case, and that the change had not been thus violently and abruptly made. But slavery in any event is gone, and gone forever and I have no tears to shed or lamentations to make over its departure."

His closing advice to the people was as follows:—

"A provost judge is to be appointed in every district to administer the oath, give a certified copy to the person taking it, and send the original to Washington. Every opportunity is to be given. Come forward and do it yourself, and take your neighbor by the arm and induce him to do so.—Put yourself in the right position and there will be no difficulty. If Georgia is the first State to return to the Union, it will not only confirm her right to the title of the Empire State of the South, but give her new claims to honor and glory. Redeem her, and State after State will wheel into line. After the waste and ravages of both armies, she will "bud and blossom as the rose" If we cultivate further animosity we shall become hateful to others and ourselves, calamity after calamity will come upon us, and we shall live still under military burdens. Your destiny is in your own hands.—I have made these remarks with a view to induce you to renew your allegiance to the government of our country. I approach a step above—let us rew our allegiance to the King Eternal; and having on our bended knees confessed that we have all sinned, with hearts attuned by contrition, go forth and sing the angelic song, "Peace, peace on earth, and good will toward men."

The population of Richmond is estimated at 50,000, one half colored. Last week 8,500 whites were fed on rations issued by the government, while only 940 colored drew rations at the same time. Efforts are being made to compel this army of lazy whites to work and support themselves.

Agricultural.

Basement Stables.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman, in reply to an inquiry in relation to the healthiness of basement stables, says:

"I have generally kept from fourteen to sixteen head of cattle in the basement of my barn, with from three to four horses, for twenty years past. The horses are kept up the year round; the cows I generally turn out in yard, in front of the barn, when the day are pleasant. The stables are regularly cleaned every day, and well littered. A more healthy lot of stock I have never known, for I have not had a sick cow or horse since I have used these stable I certainly like basement stables, as they are warm and comfortable in winter, and cool and pleasant in summer."

Potato Blossoms.

In an article stating the importance of burying potato tops on the spot where the potatoes are raised, Prof. J. F. W. Johnston, who is perhaps, as good authority on most agricultural matters as any living writer, makes a statement which will seem singular, at least, to American readers. It is this: that by taking off the blossoms of pototoes—besides the usual increase of crop—the tops keep till the potatoes are lifted, or dug, as we call it. Thus much green matter is obtained; and it this be made into manure, and applied to the next potato crop, it is said to raise the largest produce of tubers.

Saving Seeds.

If a farmer is anxious to excel in the size and quality of his plants, let him save the seeds, selecting the earliest and fairest for the purpose. It is presumable that where raising is presumable that where raising is, whole fields and seeds is the business, whole fields and seeds patches are [illegible] Many of these may put into pail produce well; but it is come what one who got his from manly stock, taking the earliest and sele[illegible] start with great advan-

State Convention.

A State Convention will be held at Harrisburg on THURSDAY, THE 17th of AUGUST, 1865, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of putting in nomination a State ticket, to be supported by the friends of the Union at the coming October election.

The earnest and zealous labors of a loyal people secured the great victory in 1864, and made the war, which our enemies denounced as a failure a glorious success in 1865.

Our flag has been maintained—our enemies destroyed—our Government preserved, and peace re-established. Let every friend who aided in this result, take measures to be represented in that Convention. We must see to it that the fruits of our success are not lost to the Nation.

Business of vast importance will be presented for its consideration and every district in the State should be represented.

A Rebel Historian on Democratic Loyalty.

Mr. E. A. Pollard, a bitter rebel, in his "Southern History of the War," says that "No doubt can rest in history that at the time of the Chicago Convention, the Democratic party in the North had prepared a secret programme of operations, the final and inevitable conclusion of which was the acknowledgment of the independence of the [illegible] radical members of the Convention, among whom were Long, Corry and Vallandigham, had entered into league with the rebels to secure their independence, but denies that Seymour, and others of the New York delegation, sympathised in the movement. It is a matter of history, however, that Gov. Seymour did hold a conference with the rebel emmissaries in Canada on his way to the Chicago Convention, and the fair presumption warranted by the declaration of Pollard, the "Southern Historian," is that Seymour, and in fact all the leaders of that Convention, entered into the "secret league," and committed themselves to the interests of rebels. True to the requirements of the league, the Convention, by declaring the War a "failure," sought in this way to spread a spirit of despondency and discontent among the masses, and thus prepare the Northern mind for separation. To further the same object, their press and public speakers endeavored to convince the people that our boasted victories were in fact defeats, magnified our losses, and the importance of rebel triumphs, decried our currency, and (as one of their orators did in this county) asserted that the foreign credit of the "Confederacy" was better than that of the United States. Such were the arguments made use of throughout the country to corrupt the people. We can now see that disunion would have been the inevitable consequence of Democratic success; and yet when their treasonable schemes are frustrated, when rebellion is conquered and peace restored, when their treason is proved beyond a doubt, and even admitted by honest men of their own party, the leaders of the party still hold up their heads, their press still seeks to whitewash their crimes, and induce loyal men to support their corrupt organization. They may laud President Johnson to the skies, they may sustain every act of his administration—but he will not forget, and the country will not forget, the part the leaders took in the attitude of the party during the existence of the rebellion. In vain they will ask loyal men to understand the issues, to support [illegible] who were the acknowledged [illegible] and admirers [illegible] power! If the people will so soon forget and forgive treason, and those who connived at it; if a party that from the beginning to the close of rebellion, continued to embarrass our government, discourage our arms, and decry our finances, can so soon regain favor, it were better traitors had succeeded in dividing the Union—for it will be but a short period until another attempt will be successful. We have, however, more faith in the justice and patriotism of the American people. The testimony of Pollard is too damaging, the record of the party too bad to entertain much fear of its revivication.

Gubernatorial.

A communication in the Chambersburg Repository recommends Colonel Francis Jordan, of Bedford county, as the Union candidate for Governor. Colonel Jordan is an able lawyer, with honesty, ability and experience to qualify him for that position. He is at present State Agent at Washington City, and served with honor during the war.

Hon W. W. Ketchum, of Luzerne county, well known to many of our readers, we understand will also be a candidate. Mr. Ketchum served one term in the State Senate, and has filled other offices of honor and trust.—He is justly regarded as one of the ablest men in the State, honest and upright, and possesses all those qualities that should be sought for in the selection of a candidate. He was elected to the State Senate in a district giving a Democratic majority of over one thousand, and came within a few votes last fall of being elected to Congress in one of the strongest Democratic districts of the State.

Major-General Herron, of Pittsburg, is also named. He is yet a young man, but made his mark in the army. He went into the army as Captain, we believe, in a western regiment, and rose by merit to be a Major General.

Other candidates are named, but we don't know whether it is with their approbation or not. Gen. Morehead, of Pittsburg, now a member of Congress, and one of the best representatives in the State, is spoken of, as also Hon. John Covode of Westmoreland county. There will be no lack of candidates, and we trust the [illegible] committee on the conduct of the War have made a report on the Fort Fisher affair, entirely exculpating Gen. Butler from blame for the failure of the first expedition. The report proves conclusively that Gen. Butler did his whole duty, and was justified in withdrawing his forces at the time he did. The second expedition was successful because the same difficulties did not exist at the first, and had Gen. Butler been permitted to command it, he, instead of Gen. Terry, would have been the hero of Ft. Fisher. Few men in the nation have contributed more to the success of our arms, than has Gen. Butler.—We are glad that an attempt on the part of certain editors, whose loyalty is not above suspicion, to destroy his well-earned reputation, has been thwarted by the timely publication of this report.

Closing of Ford's Theater.

An attempt was made in certain quarters to excite public sympathy in favor of Ford because Sec. Stanton refused to permit him to open his Theatre on the evening advertised.—Sec. Stanton acted in that matter with his usual prudence and wisdom. It is now known that had the theatre been opened that evening the mob would have burned it. Ford has acted badly throughout, and is unworthy of the sympathy of anybody. He first attempted to sell the theater to the Young Men's Christian Association, for ten times its real value, and failing in that he now seeks to realize a fortune by opening it when in would endanger the peace and safety of the city. He seeks to turn the murder of President Lincoln into a source of revenue, and expects the Government to assist him in so doing. Sec. Stanton did his duty fearlessly and honestly, and deserves thanks instead of censure.

Surveyor General.

W. H. Markle, Esq., of Westmoreland county, is a candidate for Surveyor General, subject to the decision of the Union State Convention.

Capt. Blair, of Huntingdon county, who lost an arm at Gettysburg, is also named for that position. He is said to be well qualified for the position.

The rebel ex[illegible] Joseph E. of Geor[illegible] has issu[illegible]

☞ A correspondent of the Pittsburg Gazette, writing from Harrisburg, suggests the name of Major Gen. Nagle, of Schuylkill county, for Surveyor General, and Hon. John Cessna, of Bedford county, for Auditor General. This, he well says, would certainly be a strong ticket, and one that would not fail to commend itself to the loyal masses of our loyal old commonwealth. Gen. Nagle, commanded a division of the Potomac Army, and was regarded as a fine officer and one of the bravest men in the army. Hon. John Cessna, before the breaking out of the rebellion, was one of the leaders of the Democratic party of this State; but, like many others, he preferred country to party, and has since been acting with the Union party. He was Speaker of the House of Representatives two years since, and has held many other responsible positions. He is an able lawyer, an unselfish patriot, and an honest man. If nominated and elected, he would discharge the duties of the office with credit to himself, and to the best interests of the State.

As we have heretofore indicated however, we think that the candidate for Auditor General should be selected in the West, and Col R. B. McCombs, of Lawrence county, will be named by the Western counties. He is eminently qualified, and would make a popular candidate.

Hon. T. J. Bigham, of Pittsburg, is also named, but as he is at present in State Senate we presume he is not anxious for a nomination.

☞ President Johnson appointed Hon. B. F. Perry, of South Carolina, to be Provisional Governor of that State. From the account we saw of him soon after the appointment, we presumed it a good one. Recent developments here changed that opinion. At a public gathering of the citizens of the State, at Greeneville, Gov. Perry made a speech which sounds more like the harangues of Davis or Toombs in the early part of the rebellion than like a Union speech by a Union Governor. He admits his sorrow for the failure of the Confederacy to establish her independence, lauds Gen. Lee to the skies, excuses Davis, tells his hearers he never can forget and he hopes the South never will forget the cruelty practiced on the [illegible] that the slaves are not fit for freedom, and therefore should not be free. All this did very well for an orator in South Carolina six months since, but now it sounds very badly and should not be tolerated in any one, especially an appointee of the Government. If the Government officers preach treason what may we expect from the people. It is an insult to the loyal people of the nation, both North and South, and the author should be severely rebuked and taught that unless he changed his tone he must exchange places with some more loyal citizen.

A GOOD USE FOR REBEL GOLD.—When Isham G. Harris was Governor of Tennessee, and the will of Jefferson Davis was law in the State of the patriotic Parson Brownlow, the treasury was well supplied with the old metallic coins of Uncle Sam.—When the State was captured by the Union troops, Harris incontinently vamoosed, taking the specie along.—General Upton followed the fugitive rebel and captured the bulky freight. The runaway escaped, but the gold was returned to Nashville. When Brownlow exchanged the editorial chair for the gubernatorial station, he decided to convert the gold into United States bonds. This has just been done by Jay Cooke. The specie, amounting to half a million of dollars, was sent to the east, converted into seven-thirties, and the bonds forwarded to Nashville. No rebel gold, since the first secession of a southern State, has ever been appropriated to better uses. The State of Tennessee is now bound by a new link to the great government from whose central power she derives all her influence.

The Return of the Sneaks.

We notice by our exchanges, that in many localities, large numbers of the skedaddlers who sought escape from their duty to the Government, by a refuge in Canada, are returning to their homes, believing, now that the war is over, they are relieved from all responsibility for their crimes. In this they are sadly mistaken. The law of Congress explicitly declares that all such deserters, who failed to return to their companies or report to a Provost Marshal, within sixty days after the issue of Proclamation, dated March 3d, 1865, should forfeit their rights and franchises as citizens.—This law is now in full force and operation. All deserters who have failed to report before the 1st of May, 1865, have consequently forfeited their citizenship. It is well enough for the people in the localities where these skedaddlers now seek to resume their citizenship, to remember these legal facts, and see that they are properly enfor[illegible]

☞ "It is understood that within a few days Maj. Gen. Geo. Crook is to be married to Miss Mollie Daly, of Oakland, Maryland."

Messrs. Editors: The above item is clipped from the Pittsburgh Commercial, of July 22d, and "it reminds me," as the story tellers have it, "of something that happened." Before the war broke out there was a young man from Maryland in attendance at one of our Colleges in this region. When hostilities began he joined the Southern army, and obtained a commission. His name was Charley Daly. While at school at the College aforesaid, he was very intimate with a young man belonging to one of the best families of the neighborhood, the head of which became very much interested in Charley. He was rather a wild boy, and was only saved by the intervention of friends, from being sent home by the Faculty. When the session ended he returned to his native State with a gentle hint that he need not return.

A few days ago the gentleman above alluded to as "the head" of the family, was sitting in his office in Pittsburg, when a young man, dressed in the extreme of the fashion, with tight-drawn kids to match, stepped in with a most supercilious air, haughty and insolent, and extended his hand, with a french bow, and very bland smile, saying, "how do you do, Mr. ——?" The gentleman, without rising from his seat, said to him, "what do you wish, sir?" "Ah!" said the young man, with a most killing glance, "I perceive you don't know me." Instantly the reply came, "yes sir, I do know you, but what do you wish?" This somewhat embarrassed the dandy; yet he maintained his ground, but withdrew his still extended hand, and inquired for one of the family. The gentleman then rose to his feet, and said, "My son has no desire to see you, sir; there is the door by which you entered, and the sooner you retire by it the better it will be for you." Still he tarried, when the gentleman became somewhat excited, and gave him a broad hint that unless he instantly vacated the premises it would be the worse for his dandyship. He then beat a hasty retreat, and it is supposed took the first train from the city, as he has not been seen there since.—That young man was Charley Daly, the quandom rebel officer, and who had the unblushing effrontery to appear in the counting room of a gentleman once his friend, and who had a son wounded in the battle of Fredericksburgh, it may be, by a ball from the gun of the same sprig of "chivalry." Had the fellow appeared then, giving evidence of repentance, he would probably have met a different [illegible] I do not think [illegible] the gentleman[illegible] ed public sentiment very deeply, if, after his first intimation to him to leave, he had expedited his departure by an application of leather; only the shoe would have been forever afterward [illegible] for a loyal man to wear. This Charley Daly is a brother of the lady noticed by the Commercial, and he was a prominent actor in the capture of Gens Crook and Kelly at Cumberland. Wonder if he took Gen. C[illegible] to see his sister?

The Departure of the Conspirators for the Tortugas.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 18, '65.

The sentenced conspirators, Mudd, Arnold, O'Laughlin and Spangler, arrived here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the steamer State of Maine. They were in charge of Brevet Brig. Gen. Dodd, and wore irons on their ankles.

When first placed on board at Washington they had on manacles.—These last fetters were removed after the steamer left her wharf at Washington. On the trip down Mudd and Spangler were very cheerful, and employed their time in playing backgammon. O'Laughlin and Arnold, on the other hand, appeared much depressed in spirits, and were melancholy and reserved.

On her arrival in the roads the State of Maine anchored and Gen. Dodd came on shore and communicated with Washington by telegraph. Just at sundown the steam-tug Chowan went alongside of the State of Maine, and the four conspirators were placed on board of her.

The Chowan then steamed alongside of the U. S. gunboat Florida, the arrival and presence of which vessel was noticed yesterday. The four prisoners were put on board the Florida, and that gunboat immediately steamed to seaward." As the crimson twilight bathed the broad bay in a sheen of gold, the Florida departed.

The bright golden reflection of the sunset sky faded to dun, and the dun to blackness, as the steamer stood down the bay. The prisoners were taken below, the light fading out of their misdirected lives, even as the light was fading out of sea and sky; and in the gathering darkness our eyes lost sight of the Florida with her ill-omened passenger.

☞ That must be a dull man who does not feel some pride of country when he finds among distant nations that he is already known and welcome there, through the labors of our Statesmen, Merchants and Scholars, whose renown has become national property, and consequently in some measure his own. Whether Dr. Ayer's remedies do actually cure more than others or not, they have secured the reputation of being a God-send to those afflicted with disease, and where [illegible]

EDWARD N. BOOTS, Quarter Master Sergt. 101st Regt. P. V., died in the military prison at Andersonville, Ga., Sept. 1864, in the 31st year of his age. He was a resident of North Sewickly township, this county.

His parents, John and Sylvia Boots, were natives of England, and emigrated to this country in 1829. His father, who died eleven years ago, was a local preacher in the M. E. church, and a highly respectable citizen. His widowed mother, five brothers and two sisters are left to mourn the loss of a true and noble son, a kind and loving brother.

He entered the service of his country as a private, in company H, 101st Regt. P. V., October, 1861, and was constantly with his regiment, discharging with the utmost fidelity and patience, every duty to which he was assigned, and meeting with heroic courage every danger to which he was exposed. He re-enlisted in January, 1864, resolving to remain in the army as long as his services were needed, or sacrifice his life upon the altar of his country. He had been recommended for promotion to the rank of 1st Lieutenant, and but for the capture of the command, would have been commissioned.

At Plymouth, N. C., where he was captured with his command, on the 20th day of April, 1864, he distinguished himself previous to the capture, by his coolness and unflinching bravery. Amongst those who fell victims to the cruel and barbarous spirit engendered by the slave power of the South, none will be more deeply mourned by a large circle of friends, than Sergt. Boots. He was a young man of more than ordinary intellect, and had by his own industry and self-reliance, acquired a good education, under circumstances by no means favorable.—Many of his old friends who may see this notice will remember him as a most devoted and successful teacher, in which profession he was unsurpassed. A mind stored with valuable knowledge, a genial, happy spirit, and a true and generous heart, made him a most pleasant and agreeable companion, and secured him the esteem of all who knew him, while those who knew him best, loved him as a brother. Above all, he was an humble, devoted christian; not merely a member of the church—not a formal professor of the religion of Christ, but a truly pious man. No one who knew him intimately will doubt this. He has grounded his arms, we doubt not, at the feet of Jesus, and received a crown of everlasting joy at God's right hand, where sickness and sorrow are unknown.

May the weeping family of which he was a member, and all his friends, be comforted and sustained by the [illegible] afflicted and finally brought [illegible]

To Europe in a Week.

It is stated that a company of leading shipowners of New York have under consideration plans for building four magnificent vessels of eight thousand tons each, to be propelled by engines of two thousand five hundred horse power, working two paddle wheels of the usual kind, and two screw propellers—so that, in case of the derangement of either set of machinery, the other set shall continue working without material impediments in the speed of the vessel.

These vessels are capable of carrying 2,500 passengers at the variable fares of $25, $50 or $75, according to amount of accommodation required, between that city and Bristol, England. Meals are to be furnished on board the same as at any restaurant, and passengers can either eat or leave it alone, as it may please them. The passage to Europe, it is believed, at eighteen miles an hour, will be made in seven days, while the great length of the vessels (nearly six hundred feet) will overreach or materially control the waves, and prevent that terrible pitching motion that is more or less the dread of all sea going travelers.

☞ The annual report of the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania, just issued shows that, despite all prejudice and all opposition, the institution is becoming as famous as it is useful. It is now in the sixteenth year of its existence. It has had warm and earnest friends, with liberhands and ample purses, or it would long since have sunk out of existence. The outbreak of the war swept away the feebler of the medical schools, but the Female College has successfully withstood the brunt. The class of 1864-5 comprised twenty-three students. Of its graduates many are now in successful practice, and in various parts of the country. When this school was founded the medical education of a woman was an untried experiment, regarded by many excellent people as a thing of questionable propriety. Things are materially changed.

☞ The subscriptions to the Seven-Thirty Loan, on Monday, amounted to $10,218,300. The balance of the Loan unsold on that day was about $5,000,000 and is doubtless taken up before this.

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

☞ We will publish next week the able opinion of Judge Agnew, sustaining the Constitutionality of the Bounty Law.

☞ We are under obligations to Capt. Wm. M'Callister, clerk of the steamer "Iron City," for late Cincinnati papers.

☞ In the proceedings of the Beaver County Medical Society last week it was omitted that S. M. Ross, M. D., was continued Essayist for next meeting, and W. W. Simpson, M. D., Alternate.

☞ The year is more than one-half up, and many of our subscribers have not yet paid up. If they wish to save the fifty per cent additional they had better pay up soon.

☞ We understand that Mr. Hall, agent for the "Family Record," will, in a few days, sell the work except by subscription. It cannot be had at the stores.

NATIONAL LYRICS.—We have received from Tickner & Fields, Boston, the publishers of "Companion Poets," Whittier's National Lyrics, a small volume finely illustrated and containing many valuable "Lyrics." Scholars, readers and speakers should not be without it. Price, fifty cents.

☞ Capt. J. M. Donehoo, of Co. B, 7th Reg't Penn'a Cavalry, arrived at his home in Beaver on Wednesday evening last. He has not yet been mustered out of service. We are glad to see him, but he is recovering from the effects of a wound, and we trust will soon be permanently disabled.

Normal Music Class.

We understand that there are over one hundred pupils attending Prof. Johnson's Normal Music Class, at the Beaver Female Seminary. Prof. Johnson is one of the most accomplished composers and teachers in the country, and lovers of music will be well to appreciate this rare opportunity. Prof. Taylor deserves the credit of raising the class and securing Prof. Johnson's services. He has thus given us an opportunity to benefit, as a people or the community.

☞ Rev. Franklin Moore, D.D., of Washington well known to most of our readers, is now on a visit to his friends in this county. His health is somewhat improved, but not sufficient to permit his resuming his pulpit labors. He is one of our ablest pulpit orators in the State, and beside one of the purest, best men and most successful ministers. There is no man for whom we entertain greater respect, and we trust his health may be soon restored sufficient to enable him to resume his ministerial duties.

☞ We want agents in every township in the county to canvass for subscribers to the Argus. If any responsible man will take hold of the matter, our list could be doubled in most of the districts. We ask our friends to make an effort, and we will pay them well for all the subscribers furnished. We will send the Argus to a club of ten or more new subscribers, to one address for $1,75 per annum; besides giving the one who raises the club a copy free. What township will first respond?

No man in the country was so well qualified to prepare a life of our deceased President as Gov. Raymond. He was the confidential and trusted friend of the President, and is beside one of the best writers in the Nation. It contains beside, Carpenter's Anecdotes and Personal Reminiscences, that have been attracting so much attention. The work is now in press, and will be printed on fine heavy paper, octavo volume of 750 pages. The work can only be obtained from the authorized distributing agents, who will furnish it to subscribers at the following rates:

In Cloth at $3,50; Leather, $4,00; Half Turkey, $6,00.

Rev. D. P. Lowary.

We are glad to learn that Rev. D. P. Lowary has declined the call of the first Presbyterian church, of Steubenville, Ohio, and accepted the call of the Presbyterian church of Beaver. Mr. Lowary has had charge of the churches of Beaver and Freedom for three years past, during which time he has resided in Beaver. The Beaver congregation offered him three hundred dollars more than was paid him by both churches heretofore for all his time. This call he has accepted. Although not a member of his congregation, we are much gratified at his determination to remain with us. During his residence in this place he has endeared himself to all our citizens by his pleasant manner and devotion to his work, and the interest he manifests in every good object, either of local or general importance. He is an able, faithful and successful minister, and will succeed, we have no doubt, in building up a fine church in Beaver. The fact that this small congregation offer him a salary of over eight hundred dollars is sufficient evidence of their appreciation of his services. Almost every citizen of this place will be as much gratified at his acceptance of this call as will the members of the church.

Steinway at Blairsville Seminary

This popular institution, under the direction of Rev. J. K. Huges, enjoys an unusual share of public confidence and patronage. Sundry valuable additions have been made by its present director, and the Musical Department, which is in a very flourishing condition, has been enriched by the acquisition of a fine Steinway Piano, which is placed in the parlor and intended for use at the private and public musical exhibitions. Rev. Huges expresses his admiration of it in the following terms:

"We promised to let you know our opinion of the Steinway Piano you sold us for our Seminary parlor. It should be enough to say that we do not desire to exchange it for any other Piano. It wonderfully combines sweetness of tone with great power, and as an accompaniment to the human voice, we think it can scarcely be surpassed. Our music teachers pronounce it excellent and all visitors at the Seminary who can judge of and appreciate music, express great admiration. It is impossible for me to tell how highly I appreciate it.

Yours truly,

"J R HUGES,

☞ Every reading family should possess a good dictionary and a good atlas. We can hardly take up a daily paper without reading about some place that we wish to know where it is located. We can seldom read a page in history without wanting to find some place about which we are reading. By possessing a good Atlas of the World we can at a glance find any place without any trouble. Johnson's New Illustrated Family Atlas is the Atlas to buy. It gives a splendid treatise on Physical Geography, never before introduced in connection with maps. It gives the statistics, with the imports, exports and productions of all the countries of the world. It gives Township lines for every county that has Townships, with every little post office village, and station for all the islands of the ocean and all the countries of the Old and New World. The surveys of the Old World alone have cost more than eighty-five thousand dollars, and the plates are very fine steel plates, so that all the letters and words are perfectly plain and can be found. Mr. M. N. White, the general agent, is now soliciting subscribers in this county. The work should be in every family, and we trust our readers will avail themselves of this opportunity to procure a good Atlas. He partially canvassed Lawrence county, and has already obtained over three hundred subscribers. The citizens of Beaver county can appreciate a good work as fully as do the good people of Lawrence.

☞ Mason Brothers, New York, announce as in press, to be ready September 1st, a new collection of Church Music for Choirs, Singing Schools, Conventions, &c., to be entitled, "THE PRAISE OF ZION." It is by two new authors—SOLON WILDER and FREDERIC S. DAVENPORT; and the publishers, who have had great experience in such matters, and whose judgment is rarely at fault, express great confidence that it will prove extraordinarily attractive. An important feature will be its presentation of a number of compositions from distinguished foreign authors, Neukomm, Novello, and others, as well as from American favorites, among whom Chas. Zeuner is fully represented,—all of which now first printed from the original manuscripts. Retail price, $1.50—The publishers will send an advance copy of [illegible] to [illegible] teacher or [illegible] one-half of [illegible] price.

☞ THE LADY'S FRIEND.—This favorite of the ladies leads off in its August number with a beautiful steel engraving called "Grandpa's darling"—the face of the old man, with its deep thoughtful eyes, strikes us as particularly fine. Among the figures of the colored Steel Fashion Plate, we note a Bridal Dress, very chaste and pretty.

Price $2,50 a year; 2 copies $4,00.—To those desirous of making up clubs, specimen numbers will be sent for 15 cents. Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums. Address Deacon & Peterson son, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The Atlantic Monthly for August has been received, and contains its usual variety of interesting and instructive matter.—"Reconstruction and Negro Suffrage," "John Bright and the English Radicals," "Doctor Johns," and "Needle and Garden," are the best written articles.

U.S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per ct. interest per annum, known as the SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of July 15th, 1865, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are worth a premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County or municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent per annum to their value, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent	per day on a	$50	note.
Two cents	" " "	$100	"
10 "	" "	$500	"
20 "	" "	$1000	"
$1	" "	$5000	"

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent. instead of 7 3 10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the 7-30s will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this Third Series affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three tenths per ct in currency.

This is the ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now in the market. This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within the next sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Estes, a well-known merchant of Uxbridge, Mass.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England:

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an affecting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Janie E. Rice, a well known and much-esteemed lady of Dunnsville, Va., to Dr. Ayer:

"My daughter has suffered for 4 years past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the humor skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I knew of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Swain, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wisconsin, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and none of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Canada, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament,

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Stickler, Esq., the able editor of the Punkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"One only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and nearly blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied various remedies, without any apparent effect. For three days we guarded his hands, lest with them he scratch at and tear the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applied the same to [illegible] sore. In one day from the time we had given the first bottle and [illegible] we had finished the second, the child's [illegible] which had come out, grew [illegible] and [illegible] healthy and fair as ever before. The [illegible] neighborhood predicted that the child would die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Jerome Stone, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for Old Sores, Ulcers, Syphilis and Mercurial disease, than any other we possess. The proprietors are not doing you or the world any less than they have."

From A. J. Dumont, Esq., of Plaquemine, La., formerly Judge of the Supreme Court of the State, and a prominent member of the Democratic National Convention of 1856.

"DR. AYER. My wife has found your SARSAPARILLA a most powerful remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary forms, and effected in some cases what we considered as yields to no other remedies. I do not know what we could employ with more confidence in cases which require a powerful alterative and purifier."

Mr. Chas. Sears, of Upper New Brunswick, N. B., had a painful ulcer on his leg, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Two bottles are found sufficient for a perfect cure. Dr. Sears is [illegible] and [illegible] using three [illegible] and [illegible] several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Discrasia, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of [illegible] SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in all of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

WASHER, WRINGER and STARCHER Combined! Silver and Bronze Medals, Diplomas, Certificates, Premiums, and Testimonials, have been received from various sources, both Public and Private.

Self-Adjusting and Adjustable! The only Wringer with the Patent Cog-Wheel Regulator, for turning both rolls together and which positively prevents the rolls from breaking or twisting on the shaft. It is not only a perfect Wringer, but the Cog-wheels give it a power which renders it a most Excellent Washer, pressing and separating, as it does, the dirt with the water from the clothes, leaving them dryer, whiter, and smoother than when "wrung" by hand. The water can be pressed from large and small articles, easier, quicker, and more thoroughly than by the ordinary old-fashioned back-breaking, wrist-straining, and clothes destroying process.—The Cog-wheels prevent all "wear and tear" of clothes by the friction of the rolls or breaking of stitches by twisting.

Without Cog-wheels, the whole strain of forcing the cloth through the Machine is put upon the lower roll, and the cloth is made to act in the place of Cog-wheels, to drive the upper roll, causing a much greater strain upon the lower roll than when Cog-wheels, with our Patent Regulator, are used, besides the extra strain upon the cloth. A Good Canvasser wanted in every town. Liberal inducements offered, and exclusive sale guaranteed.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Best, Most Reliable Sewing Machine Now in Use!

These Machines make the lock-stich alike on both sides, and use less than half the thread and silks that the single or double thread loop-stitch Machines do. It will Stitch, Hem, Fell, Quilt, Tuck, Plait, Gather, Cord, Braid, etc., all without previous basting; and are better adapted than any other Sewing Machine in use to the frequent changes and great variety of sewing required in a family; or they will sew from one to twenty thicknesses of Marseilles without stopping, and make every stitch perfect; or from the finest gauze to the heaviest beaver cloth, without changing the feed needle or tension, or making any adjustment of machine whatever!

It has the following advantages over all other machines:

Far greater variety of work; beauty and excellance of stitch; speed and quietness of motion; simplicity of construction; ease and management; elegrance of design and finish.

These are peculiar facts, and will go far to determine the choice of an intelligent buyer.

THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL.

Published Daily by
The Pittsburgh Newspaper and Printing Company.

One of the Largest and Most Widely Circulated Papers in the State. Gives the Earliest and Fullest Intelligence.

Prospectus for the New Year.

On assuming control of the Commercial, at the commencement of the year, the conductors announced their DETERMINATION to infuse a new life and vigor into its columns which should render the paper MORE THAN EVER ACCEPTABLE TO THE READER.

The Rapid Increase in Circulation, flattering notices of our contemporaries, and Congratulatory Letters from every quarter, assure us that our efforts have not been unsuccessful.

The Commercial HAS GROWN DAILY in public favor until it now ranks among the LEADING JOURNALS in the country.

In order to keep pace with the demands of the reading public, and at the same time meet the increasing pressure on our advertising columns, we some months since INCREASED THE DIMENSIONS OF THE PAPER TO THE EXTENT OF FOUR COLUMNS.

Among the leading features are full and reliable
TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS;
from all the leading points of interest. It devotes special attention to MARKET REPORTS,
including the IRON, OIL, CATTLE, LUMBER, TOBACCO, and the PITTSBURGH GENERAL MARKETS. Our RIVER NEWS,
receives particular attention, and in this Department the Commercial has no rival. The FINANCIAL AND STOCK REPORTS, of the Commercial are prepared with care and will be found to be unusually full and reliable. Also, the Reports of the LEADING MARKETS OF THE COUNTRY,
embracing reports of the DRY GOODS and WHOLESALE MARKETS, and Special Reports of OIL STOCK FINANCE AND TRADE, from day to day.

While special attention will be given to these several Departments, the Commercial lays claim to rank among the leading journals of the country as a medium of GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Its aim is to give none but healthy reading suited to the FAMILY CIRCLE, and to be a welcome visitor to the discriminating public.

THE PULPIT

forms a peculiar feature of the Commercial. By giving every Saturday an ORIGINAL SERMON, prepared expressly by a Minister of the Gospel, in Pittsburgh or vicinity, (which, also, goes into the weekly,) fifty-two discourses are given in the year, by not less than twenty or thirty different Ministers, without regard to denominational distinction. This Department of the Commercial has attracted much attention; and arrangements are being made to increase its recognized importance and value. As a feature at once novel and instructive, it constitutes not the least of the many claims of the Commercial to patronage.

In politics the Commercial will be an undeviating supporter of the Union, and earnestly loyal to the Government, and as far as consistent with this aim, free from Partisanship.

The Commercial is a large folio sheet, and is published in two editions every morning, Sunday excepted.

TERMS OF DAILY: by mail, $10 per annum; City subscribers, served by carriers, $18 per annum, in advance, or, 25 cents per week, payable to the carrier. Single copies 5 cents. A discount made to Agents.

THE SATURDAY COMMERCIAL—A large sheet, containing all the Current News, Miscellaneous, Literary, and Scientific Intelligence, and Valuable Reading for the Family, is published at $1,50, (52 issues,) per year. In Clubs of Twenty, $1.

The Money for Weekly and Daily must always accompany the order and in no instance can these terms be deviated from.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER

And Other
Nervous and Chronic Diseases,

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or, other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE
BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILROS,
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If located in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.)

The American Publishers continue to reprint the above-named periodicals, but as the cost of printing has doubled, the price of paper nearly trebled and taxes, duties, licenses, etc., largely increased, they are compelled to advance their terms as follows:

TERMS FOR 1865.

For any one of the Reviews	$4,00
For any two of the Reviews	7,00
For any three of the Reviews	10,00
For all four of the Reviews	12,00

For Blackwood and one Review	7,00
For Blackwood and any two Reviews	10,00
For Blackwood and three Reviews	13,00

The works will be printed on a greatly improved quality of paper, and while nearly all American Periodicals are either advanced in price or reduced in size—and very generally both—we shall continue to give faithful copies of all the matters contained in the original editions. Hence, our present prices will be found as cheap, for the amount of matter furnished, as those of any of the competing periodicals in this country.

Compared with the cost of the originals editions, which at the present premium on gold would be about $100 a year, our prices ($15) are exceedingly low. Add to this the fact that we make our annual payments to the British Publishers for early sheets, and copyright in Gold—$1 costing us at this time (Jan. 1865) nearly $2,50 in currency—and we trust that in the scale we have adopted we shall be entirely justified by our subscribers and the reading public.

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great abilility and the different stand-points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

BEAVER ACADEMY.

THE Spring Term of this Institution will commence

Tuesday, April 4th, 1865,

under the charge of

Messrs. F. AGNEW & M. GANTZ, as Associate Principals.

It is the desire, and will be the aim, to make this a thorough English, Classical and Commercial School, and to sustain the high character it has had heretofore.

To those who desire a good English education, and to those who have been or contemplate teaching in our public schools, inducement is offered from the fact that the latter of the Principals, for the last twelve years, has been Principal of New Castle Union Schools.

Both are graduates of different colleges, and well acquainted with the wants of our higher institutions. Persons, therefore, who design fitting themselves for college, will find this a suitable and desirable place.

The former having been for some time connected with the Iron City College, as a principal teacher, and the latter also being a graduate of Duff's College, advantages superior to most outside of the Commercial colleges are offered to those desiring a business education.

Our new Academy Buildings, designed expressly for the purpose, with large school-room, class rooms, society hall, etc., are now occupied, though not quite finished. It is expected, however, to have them wholly so at an early day.

For rates of tuition, &c., send for circular. Address the Principals or the undersigned.

HARPER'S
NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day.—The fireside never had a more delightful companion; nor the million more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the World.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high-tone and varied excellence of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People: and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TUPPER'S Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

NOW,

Are Dr. Hurd's Preparations Good?

The best evidences that they are so, [illegible] warmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd, an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no less than fifty citizens of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle says "We are happy to know that our friend Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectation with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success lies with the fact that his articles are precisely as they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We like it the best we ponder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, &c., &c."

But their cost is so small that every one can test the matter for himself.

Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders, Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains neither acids, nor charcoal, and will not injure the enamel, wearing the finest.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that sweet charm to woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and render it more pleasantly. Hundreds of [illegible] testify to this. Try it, [illegible]

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the best preparations [illegible] curing Tooth Ache and preserving [illegible] health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable, young wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person [illegible]

ARTIFICIAL TEETH, which are liable to impart a [illegible] to the breath.

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Tooth Ache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friend that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and [illegible] suffering.

Farmers and mechanics, [illegible] neglect your teeth. Remember [illegible] you can now get preservatives [illegible] which Rothschild or Astor [illegible] Remember that Life [illegible] the Teeth often [illegible] Send for the Treatise on [illegible] and read Dr. Hurd's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever offered for this painful disease. The application of one plaster, soon becomes warm, relieves pain and awakes [illegible] from [illegible] and [illegible] sister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Neuralgia of the Face, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. [illegible] be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they want them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing stamps for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail: but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. Now is the time to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address
